

ASSESSMENT OF SKILLS PIL A/B

Learning Objectives

Module 3.2: Be able to approach, handle/pick up and restrain an animal and return it to its cage/pen in a calm, confident and empathetic manner such that the animal is not stressed or caused harm

Select and explain the best methods for common procedures (such as blood sampling and application of substances) including route/volume/frequency as appropriate.

Module 8.2: Demonstrate that s/he can handle and restrain the animal in the best position for the technique

Name of Student: _____

Establishment name: _____

Trainer name & signature: _____

Date: _____

Assessor name & signature: _____

Date: _____

NTCO endorsement name & signature: _____

Date: _____

Species	Handling	Sexing	Welfare	Secure and Restraint to
	Confidence & approach Capture/pick up Handling/dexterity Safe return to cage	Able to sex animal	Recognise signs of good/ill health	demonstrate site for Intraperitoneal and/or Intramuscular injection as appropriate for the species	demonstrate site for Subcutaneous injection	demonstrate site for Blood sample